NOTICE TO READERS.

The Editors will be glad to receive the printed Reports of all Scientific Societies (Metropolitan or Provincial), including those of Schools and Classes of Science, and of Naturalists' Field Clubs. Also Scientific Addresses, Reports, and Lectures.

Manuscript sent for approval must be accompanied with sufficient stamps to cover the return postage in case it should be deemed unsuitable. Observers in all branches of Science are invited to communicate briefly their new observations, but copies of these must be kept by Authors, as they cannot be returned if not considered suitable to the pages of this Journal.

Contributors are alone responsible for their opinions on Scientific subjects. The desire to publish both sides of a debated theory may often necessitate the insertion of views at variance with those of the Editors.

No notice whatever will be taken of anonymous communications.
